Do households from other countries help? Same scored households, same folds, two training sets